A Scripture Lady Bible Review Game

Shadrach, Meshach & Abednego

Thank you for downloading a "Scripture Lady Bible Review Game"! Here is your FREE game of "Shadrach, Meshach & Abednego". Just follow the directions below and have FUN!

The story of the three young men who were thrown into a fiery furnace because they refused to bow down to an idol has always been one of my favorites. What amazing faith these 3 men had! and may this game inspire your kids to say, "No!", as well to all that comes between them and God.

Assembly: Cut out all cards along the black lines. All the cards should be backed with the small title cards. It is best to print your cards onto cardstock or heavy paper so you can't see through to the other side. Laminate all the cards so that they will last for a long time.

Set Up: For this game, I use 1 pocket chart (approx. 28" square). (You can find pocket charts at your local teacher supply store or online at www.orientaltrading.com) Place the large title cards at the top of the chart, then fill that chart with all of the rope, flame, 3 men and God cards, backing side out. The cards should be in a jumbled order on the board. Look below for a picture of my setup.

How to Play: Divide your children into 2 teams and pick a child to be the scorekeeper. Tell the children they are going to learn about 3 young men who were brave enough to stand up for their belief in God even to the point of being thrown into a fiery furnace. Explain that you will give questions requiring multiple choice answers all based on the story of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego.

Have a child come up from the first team. The teacher should read the first multiple choice quiz. If the child answers correctly, he will then have the chance to pick 3 cards off of the board. However, before he picks each card, he must guess which picture he believes is behind the card he is choosing. If he guesses correctly, then he will get the points listed on the picture for his team. If he guesses incorrectly, then he does not get the points listed on the picture. If he ends up turning over a "God" card, he will get the points of the picture he predicted. The rope gives 100 points, the flame gives 200 points and the 3 boys card gives 300 points. As mentioned above, each child will have 3 chances to earn points for his team during his turn. Play until all 12 multiple choice quiz questions have been read. The team with the most points wins.
