

The Scripture Lady

Captivating Kids for Christ!

A Flip and Find Game for Joshua 10:1-15
For Preschoolers

ScriptureLady.com

The Day the Sun Stood Still — "Flip and Find" Game

Did you know the Bible is full of special days? One extremely special day was when the sun stood still to make the day longer, so that Joshua could win a great victory over his enemies. Let's discover this amazing true story together using "Flip and Find"!

You will need:

- The 6 story pictures and 6 surprise pictures included in this download
- A pocket chart (recommended — see the instructional video on the blog post)
- Card stock and laminate, if you'd like these pieces to last

How to Play:

Display the 6 story pictures on a pocket chart, front side out, in order. As you read each of the 6 parts of the poem (found on the following pages, alongside each story picture), invite a child to come forward, find the matching picture, and flip it over to reveal the surprise picture underneath.

Read through the whole poem once on its own first, so your preschoolers can hear the full story before you begin playing.

"So the sun stood still, and the moon stopped, until the nation avenged itself of its enemies." Joshua 10:13

By Kathy Vincent, The Scripture Lady

The following 7 pictures showcase the Title Page of the story along with the 6 parts of the story in poetic form. You can use these pictures as part of a Power Point presentation or simply print them off and show them to the children as you tell the story.

The Day the Sun Stood Still

Joshua 10:1-15

The Day the Sun Stood Still

There was a man named Joshua

Who loved God very much

Because Joshua obeyed God, the walls of Jericho

Came tumbling down through God's powerful touch

When Joshua faced a new problem

With a people called the Gibeonites

Joshua did not ask God for His help

This was not good.
This was not right.

The Day the Sun Stood Still

The Gibeonites
tricked Joshua

*Into believing they were a nation from far away

They cried out,

"Please help us fight
our enemies!"

*"Please help us, we pray!"

The Day the Sun Stood Still

Joshua promised the Gibeonites

- *That he would help them with their fight

But this is not what God wanted

- *Therefore Joshua's promise was not right

Joshua now knew that he was wrong

- *Not to trust and rely on God

But Joshua had to honor his promise

- *Even though the people of Gibeon were a fraud

The Day the Sun Stood Still

Soon war broke out against
the Gibeonites

*They came asking for Joshua's aide

Joshua took his best fighting men and as they marched to Gibeon

*God told Joshua,
"Do not be afraid!"

God told Joshua, "I have given *These enemies into your hand!"

"Not one of them will win against you!"

*"Not one of them will stand!"

The Day the Sun Stood Still

Joshua surprised the enemies of Gibeon

*God's word proved to be true

God made the enemies of Gibeon

*Confused through and through

Then God sent hailstones

*Down from the sky
To crush their enemies

*Oh, how they must have cried

The Day the Sun Stood Still

But our story isn't done

*Something else amazing took place

Joshua prayed and asked God to make the sun stand still

*This would be a miracle by God's great grace

The sun did stand still

*Every enemy was defeated by God's plan

There has never been a day like it since

*When the Lord stopped the sun after listening to a man

The following 6 pictures showcase the front facing pictures you will display on a pocket chart or table for all to see. They are numbered. You will attach the correlated number of the “sun portion” to each back.

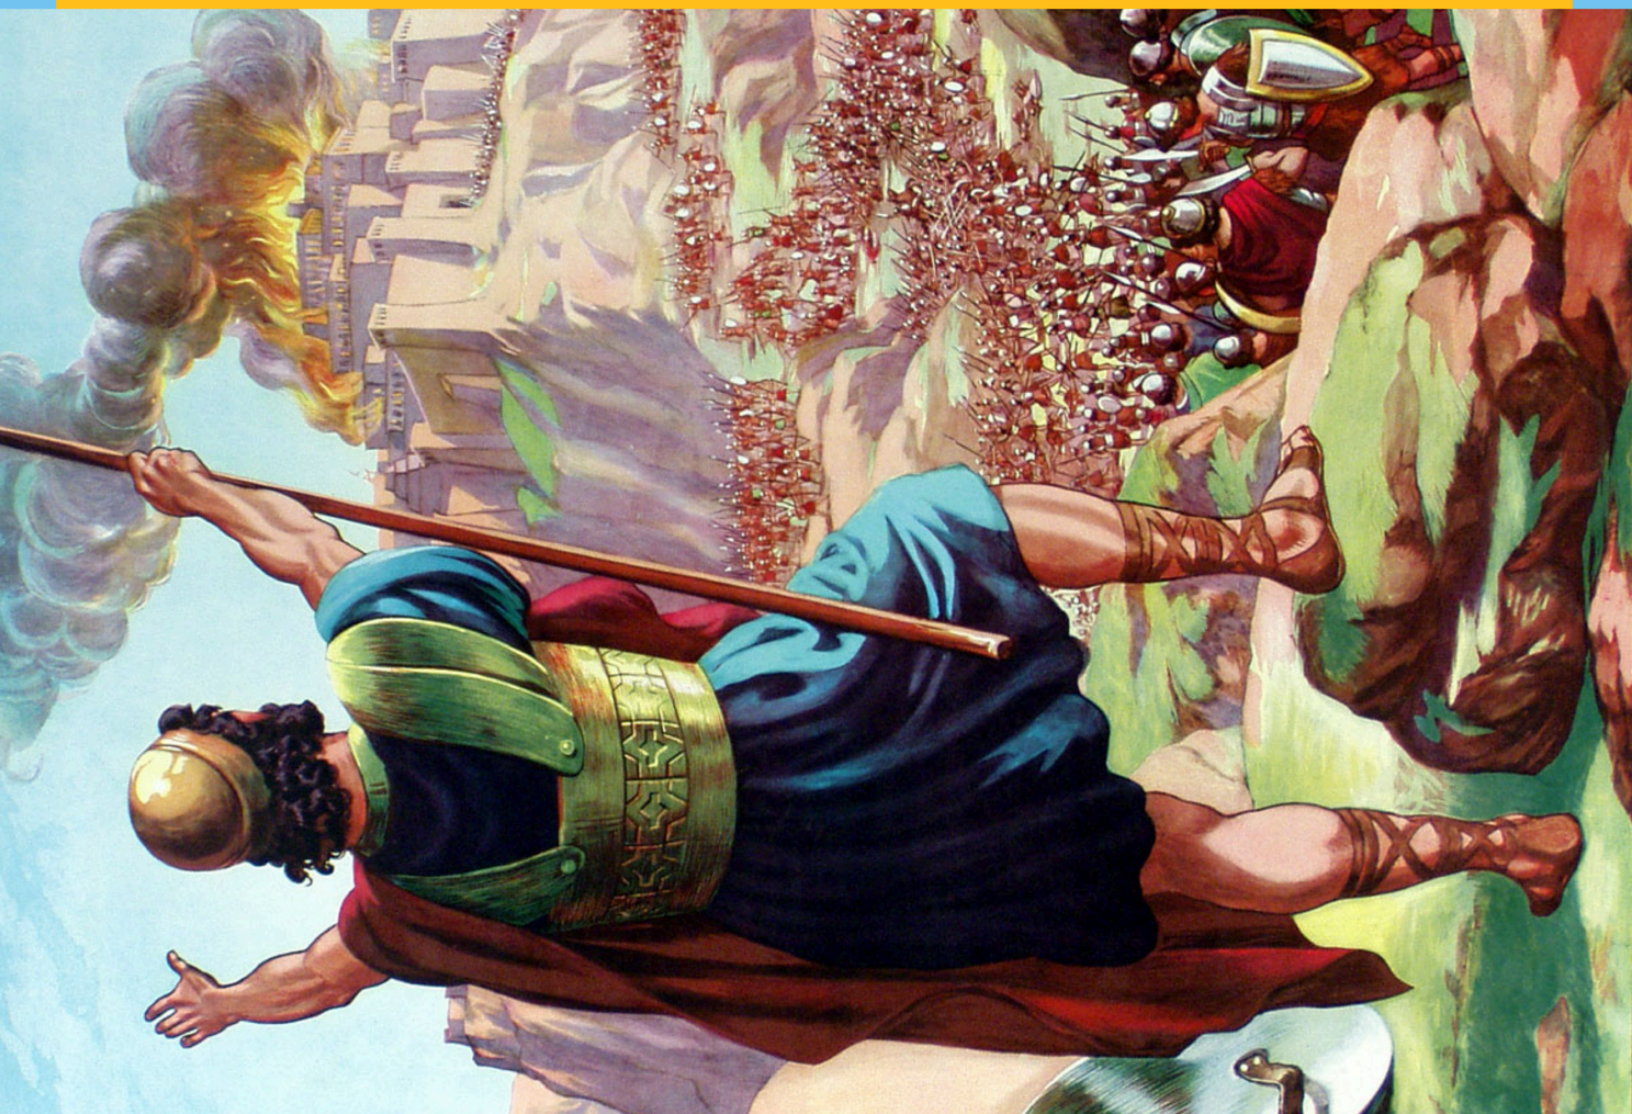

The following 6 pictures showcase the “sun portions” that you will attach to the backs of each of the story pictures. You will correlate the number of each “sun portion” with the number of story picture.

